Galveston

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

When I reached this beautiful Island City at midnight the "boys," old and young, were literally painting the town red, whilst the entertainment was diversified by explosions of rockets, the roman candles, baby wakers and pistols. A grand procession moving, bands playing and speech-making formed part of the lively programme, which continued until the dawn of day. All Galveston was rejoicing that she had secured the six million dollars appropriation to clear out the sand-beds that bar the entrance to largest ships and prevent her being the entry port for the great Southwest. Galveston is now on a boom, and real estate agents from western cities are pouring in to swell the current. The lively demand for investments has elevated prices from 100 to 500 per cent.

The island is about 50 miles long and from 1 to 4 miles wide, and is cut off from the mainland by Galveston bay, which is now crossed by several railroads that center in the city. On several occasions the city has been flooded by the backing up of the sea, but the citizens do not apprehend any danger and have no fear of a tidal wave.

Galveston is a thriving commercial city with large shipping interests, has many whole sale houses, is now developing extensive manufacturing interests and has great advantages as a shipping point by either water or rail. The extensive factories recently constructed in this city having large financial backing, are but the beginning of a large manufacturing of every kind. Millions of bales of cotton produced in the State seek shipment at Galveston; then why should we not be the Lowell of the South, and be independent of northern mills and workshops? Here can now be found large flour mills, machine shops, cotton companies, oil mills, bakeries, planing mills, foundries, carriage factories, truck manufacturers and other large industries, all in full blast giving an air of business vitality that is refreshing.

Galveston is truly a city of churches with many beautiful and costly edifices, some nice streets, and many expensive suburban villas. Mr. Walter Greham, formerly of Virginia, is just about completing his lovely home at a cost of over one hundred thousand dollars. The Beach Hotel is a magnificent building, and the beach is smooth, gradual and free from dangerous currents. The Boulevard extending 20 miles is a lovely drive, and in the afternoon hundreds of fine equipages are observed with their occupants enjoying the charming health-giving sea breeze. The population of the city is about 30,000 and the increase will now be liberal and steady. All Texas is on a boom and a good class of settlers are pouring in to the State from every direction. C. W. G.

A LONG BRIDGE.—The King of Roumania Tuesday officiated in the ceremony of laying the foundation stone for a new railway bridge across the Danube, at Tchernavode, a Roumanian town. In a speech after the ceremony, the King declared that the bridge would be the longest in Europe and that its completion would mark an epoch in history, shortening as it would, the route from the North to the Black Sea.

MEDICINAL.

Wake Up.

If you wake up in the morning with a bitter or bad taste in your mouth, Languor, Dull Headache, Despondency, Constipation, take Simmons Liver Regulator. It corrects the bilious stomach, sweetens the breath and cleanses the furred tongue. Children as well as adults sometimes eat something that does not digest well, producing Sour Stomach, Heartburn, Restlessness, or Sleeplessness—a good dose of Regulator will give relief. So perfectly harmless is this remedy that it can be taken by the youngest infant or the most delicate person without injury, no matter what the condition of the system may be. It can do no harm if it does no good, but its reputation for 40 years proves it never fails in doing good.
